This public forum is a time for public review of the revised Computer Use and Internet Safety Policy of the Stafford Library. This policy was updated and amended to include actions to be taken to protect against the use of Library computers for the unlawful viewing of online materials that are obscene, illegal or harmful to minors, as defined by federal law and to comply with the Children's Internet Protection Act [Pub. L. No. 106-554 and 47 USC 254(h)]. Compliance with this law is required to accept computer equipment awarded in a grant from the Connecticut State Library and funded by the federal Institute of Museum and Library Services. A copy of the policy may be obtained by contacting the Library.
